St ANDREW'S CHURCH

THANKS... that's a New Year sort of thing to say. Thanks to everyone who made Christmas at St Andrew's so special this year. There are far too many people to name – always a sign of a good parish, that. However there is one exception. Without Fr John we would be nowhere. Have you ever wondered why the Rector always finishes Christmas with a sore throat and a hacking cough? This year all our worship had an extra zip and we must thank John for that.

"It must be nice for you to see your Church so full." That was what a friend said to me at "Words for Voices". She is a leader at St David's, which is a very vibrant parish. (So it should be. They've got a University in their Parish. We've just got cows and sheep.) Anyway, I had a guilty pleasure in saying, "It was even fuller at the Carol Service. There were even more people here for the Christingle, because all the school children came." St Andrew's had a record turn out again for the Crib Service and both the Christmas Eucharists were fuller than last year. God be Praised.

Church Warden's Jottings

Christmas is always going to be a busy time. In St Andrew's, 2019 was even more so with the village school paying us a visit not once but three times, the usual Christmas services, Christingle, Crib Service [which was packed], Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. All of these services were very well supported and I mustn't forget to mention the Words for Voices concert which, as ever, was sold out. The exciting news is that Words for Voices are coming back on 24 April, doing a performance entitled "Spring into Summer". Tickets for this will be out next month.

Keep fit in the church.

St Andrew's Church is lucky that we still have working bells in the church Tower. However, the number of bell ringers is dropping due to ill health and old age creeping up. So how about learning how to ring the church bells and keeping fit at the same time. We have six bells so it is also a social gathering. Practice night is on a Tuesday evening from about 7.30pm. If you fancy a look and a practice then give Barbara Phillipson a ring on 01392 833145. Barbara would be delighted to hear from you.

Easter Sunday is on 12 April, which means our regular charity Lent lunches will be held, as usual, in the Kenn Centre on Monday lunchtimes 12.30pm till 2.00pm, starting on Monday 2 March through to the end of March, finishing on Saturday 28 March, so those who cannot come along on a weekday have a chance to experience a great social atmosphere and some wonderful soups and puds! There are posters around the village to remind you.

Talking of Lent, the Rev Mark Bate has organised 3 super services, with guest speakers starting on 1 March 10am. The guest speaker for this one is Bishop Martin Shaw. Details of the other dates are elsewhere in this edition.

Did you know

Giving to charity is very much a part of St Andrew's Mission. Every year the church gives to charity at least 10% of our income. For many years now we have been giving £50 a month to a Christian Mission in North West India, run by the Rev Samuel Saga. This £50 a month is worth three times the equivalent worth in India, so it's good to know that we are playing our part in building Christianity in this part of the world.

Lastly, things to look forward to in 2020

I have already mentioned Words for Voices in April. Other events in the pipeline are a Barn Dance in May, the Church Village Fete on Saturday, 27 June and a Wedding Dress exhibition from 3-5 July. (cont. overleaf)

Fancy a cuppa and a chat.

Well, the place to be, once a month on a Thursday morning, is St Andrew's, where numbers are growing and why wouldn't they when you can eat delicious home-made cake and drink lovely coffee or tea, while talking to friends and acquaintances. Children are most welcome, with toys provided for them to play with. Yes, it's held in the church but it's nice and warm and has background music to lift one's spirits. It's also a great place to make new friends and not religious in any way so why not come along and enjoy the ever growing group of like minded people.

It's just £1.00 for tea or coffee and a piece of cake. You get free refills and cake to take home if you want it!

The next coffee morning is at 10.30-12noon on Thursday 20 February then on Thursday, 19 March

Lastly, I am very excited to say that St Andrew's has persuaded the Bishop of Crediton [Jackie] to take a Eucharistic Service on Sunday 29 March at 10am. This will be the only morning church service in the Kenn Valley on that Sunday. Remember the date.

WI MATTERS

Kenn and Kennford WI

Christmas Party 2019.

We met in the Kenn Centre for our annual Xmas Party. The hall once again beautifully decorated by our amazing committee. Not an easy task as nothing can be stuck or pinned on walls but over the years we have worked out ways!!!!

As usual our food display was amazing. Such variation and most of us kept to soft drinks!

Also impressive were our beautifully wrapped gifts, thanks to Pat and Co. Thank you guys You all work tirelessly behind the scenes to make things memorable.

Our guest speakers were the Heavitree Hand Bell Ringers. They were amazing and even allowed us to join in. So we all had a very festive time.

Thanks to everyone who came, took part, sang, rang bells etc. You are the glue that keeps our WI together.

Happy New Year to you all. Don't forget subs are due in January.

The next meeting was held on 21 January 2020 at 1930 hours at the Kenn Centre.

Kenn & Kennford Handbell Ringers

In full concentration!

If you found yourself shipwrecked, alone, on Lundy Island, which 8 discs would you want to have with you?

These are Sandra Phillips' choices

Disc 1 THE LAUGHING POLICEMAN – Charles Penrose

Memories of rolling around my bedroom, aged ten, helpless with laughter. Still makes me smile when I hear it, not often admittedly.

Disc 2 RUBBER BALL – Bobby Vee

First record I bought with my own well earned money.

Disc 3 TRUMPET VOLUNTARY – Jeremiah Clarke

Played for my wedding, on my arrival at Kenton Church on 7 Sept. 1968.

Disc 4 ROCKARIA – ELO

Great Band, Great music!

Disc 5 CALL ME AL – Paul Simon

Not sure what this is all about, but another great tune.

Disc 6 BOHEMIAN RHAPSODY – Queen

Perhaps the best rock tune of all time – in my opinion.

Disc 7 ARRIVAL OF THE QUEEN OF SHEBA – G.F. Handel

My entrance funeral music.

Disc 8 WHO WANTS TO LIVE FOR EVER – Freddie Mercury

My exit funeral music.

The last two are a bit tongue in cheek as I, may not be able to have any influence on this!!!!!!
This is a shout out to my Godson who will be organising the event.

If I could only take one record it would obviously be Queen's fabulous BOHEMIAN RHAPSODY

My one luxury item would be my iPad and a solar charging panel.

If you like cycling, want to up your fitness and join a small group of like-minded people then read on.

I have been thinking, after last year and all the cycling that I did completing RideLondon, that this year I would like to build on my fitness and mental well being and start a group that goes out on a Sunday morning and cycles a few miles. Starting off slow and over time cycling about 40-50 miles. My fitness has dropped off a bit over Christmas so not going to go mad to start off!

The idea is that we meet every 3rd Sunday to start and see how it goes. Nice easy rides (not into conquering mountains!) but some level of cycling would help.

Our first ride, if you're interested in joining us, is on Sunday 26 January 2020.

We are planning on a ride down to Exmouth on the cycle path. A ride down to the beach, a coffee at the half way mark, before the ride back. An early 8:30am start from Kennford.

If the weather is bad, I will make a call the night before if we are to ride or not.

Light rain/showers we will still ride but for heavy rain and strong winds I will cancel.

Contact me if you would like to come along, we would love to see you

Continuing with the sporting theme overleaf, in the last edition of Haldon Views we reported the results of the 2019 KGB Open.

Here we see the 2018 winner, John Vlietstra, graciously presenting the trophy to the current holder Hugh Plummer.

JV's fingers were eventually prised off the trophy and he returned to his seat, sobbing.

News from the MOTHERS' UNION Branch at St. Andrew's, Kenn (with Exminster)

At our meeting in December, at the home of Sarah Baker, members guessed each other's identity from childhood pictures and took part in two short quizzes, one on the bible and the other on Mothers' Union matters.

Members met in January at The Smugglers, Holcombe, for a very enjoyable meal and opportunity to chat.

Our next meeting will be held on Thursday 13 February at 2 pm at 'The Gables', Kenn, home of Jane Bell. The Reverend Caroline Luff will speak on the MU theme for 2020 - 'Building Hope and Confidence'.

Corporate Communion

Wednesday 5 February - 10 am at St. Martin's, Exminster.

Coffee Mornings

On a Thursday of each month from 10.30 am until 12 noon, Coffee Mornings are held in St Andrew's Church for anyone living in the community who would like to have a cup (or two) of coffee or tea and a slice of cake in happy and friendly surroundings. All visitors will receive a very warm welcome and don't worry if transport is a problem for you, we have drivers who are more than happy to collect you and return you to your door afterwards.

So why not give it a try? You don't have to come every time, there is absolutely no formality and just because it's held in church, that's just for convenience. It's not a religious gathering in any sense of the word.

If it's not of any interest to you, do you know anyone else who you think would like a bit of company? If so phone either Shirley (833293) or Brenda (832896)
